Today's meeting was about Prostate Cancer. Local urologist, Dr. Dale Robertson was our speaker. Although new to Gadsden, he has fit in nicely!

The good news is that there are many men walking around today who are cancer free after treatment. Prostate cancer is a disease that affects men only, and along with skin cancer, is by far the most common. There are approximately two million men who count themselves cancer survivors.

From cutting edge robotics to more standard treatments, Clinical Urology has a cross platform program to completely serve the patient here in town. Our speakers over the last several weeks have shown us, without so many words, that we can be diagnosed, treated and cured right here in our home town. Clinical Urology surely is one of the gold standards in Gadsden when it comes to the health field.

Great job, and welcome to Gadsden, Dr. Robertson!!!

Special thanks to our own Ron Higgins, ace stand-in reporter for the photos and notes from this meeting. He did a great job after being surprised by the new weird set up for the play!

So good to see the excitement that "Gadsden Reads" is generating. Our Amanda Jackson does a great job!
