 Glen Williams

Glen Williams gave a heartfelt Bob Sisson Happy Minute Dollar in honor of his finally getting in some "Tractor Therapy". Ronald Reagan once said there is something about the outside of a horse that's good for the inside of a man. Apparently, the makers of John Deere can imbue their products with the same emotion.

Lesa "Don't Call Me Grannie, I Will Cut You" Osborn is secretly having another grandchild. Prepared or not, "Peanut" is a boy who will join an already present sister in the coming months.

Glen also wanted to thank all those who answered the call to collect flags in the recent weather emergencies to protect them. That was a great idea that likely saved them from wind damage or disappearance.

Johnny Curry
 Special Projects Director
 American Village

Johnny Curry knew he was in a warm and comfortable spot when he learned Jim Martin and J Holland were members of our club. He worked with both of them during his stint in politics.

Johnny's current job is Projects Director at American Village. He enjoys his job so much that he has never really "gone to work" one day. His is a labor of love and respect for the institution he serves.

American Village is located in Montevallo, about thirty minutes south of Birmingham and an hour above Montgomery. They are off I-65 on Exit 234. The Village will surround you with the power and drama of the American struggle for "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." They have expanded hours during patriotic holidays and commemorations and also lowered fees for admission during those times. Please check them out at: americanvillage.org.

(Right: Johnny posed the question to our group, "Who here is a patriot?")
